Bridgefield Commons

About the Developer

Construction Consultants, LLC (CCLLC), based in Sherman, Connecticut, brings more than 75+ years of residential building experience to the Bridgefield Commons project in Meriden. The company, led by four principal members, has built a reputation for quality and consistency in construction design having built over 400 homes and condominiums in the state of Connecticut.

CCLLC has established long-standing relationships in Fairfield County with town leaders, realtors, subcontractors, and suppliers across the state. CCLLC is excited about entering the Meriden market and building new partnerships in the community.

CCLLC has conducted significant market research in developing the designs and architecture for the models being offered at Bridgefield Commons. The homes combined with a thoughtful landscaping plan will make Bridgefield Commons the premier Active Adult Community in the region.

About the Community

The City of Meriden is a thriving and growing community of approximately 58,244 population and has an area of 23.7 square miles. Located at the intersection of Interstates 91 and 691, as well as the Merritt Parkway (Route 15) and Route 5, Meriden is at the "Crossroads of Connecticut." Meriden is 20 minutes from both Hartford and New Haven in Central Connecticut, and less than two hours from Boston and New York City.

Connecticut's silver city, Meriden is a city rich with heritage and pride. Once a community dominated by manufacturing, Meriden is now thriving with a new era of business and industry. Residents, business leaders and tourists alike benefit from Meriden's ideal location.
